

Clark County Fair Offers Discount Online Ticket Sales with Interactive Ticketing

Ridgefield, WA July 7, 2009 – The Clark County Fair, producers of the largest single location community event in the Portland/Vancouver area, has recently opened online ticket sales for the 2009 fair taking place August 7th - 16th, 2009. This will be the second year the fair will be using Interactive Ticketing's innovative web ticketing system, which was a hit last season for visitors looking to save time and money. Tickets can be easily purchased directly from the Clark County Fair website at www.clarkcofair.com.

To celebrate the excitement of this year's fair; Clark County Fair is offering excellent savings to those who pre-order:

Advance Adult: $7 will be $9 after Aug 6th

Advance Senior: $5 will be $7 after Aug 6th

Advance Child: $4 will be $5 after Aug 6th

In addition, 3 ticket packages will be deeply discounted and will not be available online after August 6, 2009:

Fabulous Four Pack: $19 a $28 value. [2 Adult & 2 Children (7-12) Admission]

Tiny Tots Package: $31 a $48 value. [2 Adults, 30 Ride Coupon Book, Kids Under 7 Free]

Summer Sizzle Package: $64 an $88 value. [2 Adults, 2 Children (7-12), 2 Unlimited Ride Wristbands]

Customers who buy their online tickets early not only save money but also receive the luxury of bypassing the box office lines. Online tickets are printed by the patron, each with its own unique barcode. Upon arrival, the barcode is quickly scanned and the attendee is able to gain access to the fairgrounds more quickly than ever before.

"It has been a pleasure working with Interactive Ticketing," said Dana Kelley, Clark County Fair Marketing Manager. "Their technology makes the setup and selling of our tickets a snap. As we know from last season, our customers are happy to be able to order and print tickets at home, and skip any waiting lines at the entrance gate. We look forward to another great year and are pleased to see our patrons taking advantage of these excellent discounts!"
